Thales Alenia Space, Joint Venture Thales (67%) and Leonardo (33%), is a manufacturing company in the space field globally, which for over forty years has been providing high-tech solutions for Telecommunications, Navigation, Earth observation, environmental management, scientific research e orbital infrastructure.

Thanks to the diversity of skills, talents and cultures, Thales Alenia Space customers (governments, institutions, space agencies, telecommunications operators), have Space for Connect, to Safeguard and Defend, to Observe and Protect, to Explore, to Travel and Navigate.

Together with Telespazio, the company forms the strategic partnership "Space Alliance", capable of offering a complete set of solutions and services. Thales Alenia Space played a prominent role in the major ones space missions worldwide, receiving several awards, including the Randstad Globe Awards, a recognition to the company as one of the most attractive companies in Italy.

Thales Alenia Space has a consolidated turnover of 2.15 billion euros in 2019 and about 7,700 employees in nine countries, Thales Alenia Space is also a leader in technological innovation, and is one of the main suppliers of orbital infrastructures and probes for the exploration of the Universe, for the study of Mars and the Moon.

With its 10 plants in France, Italy, Spain, Belgium and Germany, the company develops the most technologies at the forefront of the earth and space segments of scientific, commercial, military and security applications.

Thales Alenia Space is present in Italy with cutting-edge production sites and "clean rooms" in Rome, L'Aquila, Turin and Milan and employs around 2,200 employees.